DEPUTIES' MEETING

Friday, 9 April 1954

PRESENT: Mr. Dulles, General Cabell, Messrs. Wisner, Amory, Kirkpatrick, [redacted] Sheldon and [redacted]

25X1

25X1

Mr. Dulles:

a. Raised the question of CIA [redacted] [redacted] and stated we would take the position that we should not do this in the particular instance at hand unless directed by the OCB. The Director said he felt this [redacted] should be supplied by Defense.

b. Referred to a cable from the Senior Representative, [redacted] (IN 35465) and stated from the contents of this cable
he believed we should stay clear of the proposal contained therein. [redacted] undertook to discuss this matter with Mr.
[redacted]

[redacted]
[redacted]
d. Noted his intention to touch base with Attorney General Brownell regarding the transfer of funds to the FBI, prior to discussing this matter with Congressman Taber. General Cabell undertook to determine from Mr. Papich whether Mr. Brownell is fully aware of this proposed transfer and to so advise the Director before he calls the Attorney General.

General Cabell:

a. Reported that he had again contacted [redacted] [redacted] regarding the source of the pictures of the two Russian aircraft, and had been turned down. General Cabell noted he had not mentioned the fact that the Director was considering calling [redacted] of McGraw-Hill. The Director said he intended to review this situation the first of next week and in all probability would call [redacted]

25X1

b. Noted [redacted] had advised him that the [redacted] had met in Executive Session on "agreed activities" and a paper on this problem was on its way to us. General Cabell said General Samford was alone in attempting to support CIA views on this matter and his hand would be strengthened if we could
